The Worst Yet

The evolution of Mrs. Nation is but natural, after all. It runs in this order: The woman—the woman with a hat—the woman with a hat yet—the woman with a hat yet—the woman with a hat yet.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Oh, James.

Chicago is determined that the health of the theatrical profession shall be preserved and henceforth health officers will be required to examine the chorus girls' thighs. Say I how would you like to be a health officer.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Wholesale Lynching.

At Dyersburg, Tenn., yesterday afternoon, a mob took a negro who was charged with rape, from the county jail, and after trying him in the court house, hung him in the courthouse yard. They then went back to the jail and got another one charged with the same offense and went through the same ceremony.

New Law Firm.

Mr. Neville C. Fisher, of this city, and Mr. Jos. E. Johnson, of Millersburg, have organized a partnership for the practice of law in this city. There are no two more popular young men in the county than these two gentlemen, and their high personal character, coupled with their standing at the Paris bar, should insure them a large and lucrative practice. The News wishes them unbounded success.

Bosley-Stivers Trial Begins Today

The case of the Government against Sherman Bosley and J. L. Stivers, charging them with misappropriation of funds while in the postoffice here, will be called in the Federal Court at Louisville to-day. Messrs. Bosley and Stivers went to Louisville last week, and a number of witnesses went down yesterday. Among those were Rodney Quinby, George Howard, W. L. Davis, S. S. Abney, Buckner Woodford, Capt. Chas. Winn and Rufus Stivers. Hon. Horace Miller and Dan Peed were also summoned, but were unable to go on account of sickness.

Gave Himself Up.

Last Friday afternoon, at J. A. Horvath's place on the Bethlehem pike, Charles Johnson and George Brack two colored men, became involved in a quarrel, and Johnson beat Brack with a club, fracturing his skull and breaking his arm. Officers Burke and Williams went out to arrest Johnson, but were unable to locate him.

Late Saturday night Jailer Kiser was awakened by a rump on the bell on the jail door. Getting up he asked who was there. "I am Johnson," a voice replied, "and I want to give myself up." Mr. Kiser thought this proposition was absurd, and thought of another mob immediately flashed through his mind, and he began to clear the deck for action. When he opened the door he jammed a gun into the darky's face which scared him so bad the kinks came out of his hair. He finally explained and was locked up.

Francis E. Willard Memorial Service.

SUNDAY afternoon the W. C. T. U. of this city, held memorial services at the Christian Church in honor of the memory of Miss Francis E. Willard, it being the third anniversary of her death. Miss Willard was truly a noble woman, and her name should always be revered. One of the noblest of her traits was that she practiced what she preached. She did not preach temperance on the lecture platform or in a newspaper, and practice temperance in her daily walks of life and business. A certain Parisian who has preached more temperance in his life than Porter Smith has insurance, recently had a crowd of his friends at a social function in his office, at which he served alcoholic stimulants of several different kinds. "A good example is worth more than a flowing tongue."

Held Over To Circuit Court.

Gus alias "Spruce" Marks, and Jimmie Ward, the two youngsters, who were arrested on warrants charging them with burglarizing the clothing store of W. T. Talbot & Co., on the night of the 10th inst., were both held by Judge Webb Saturday to appear before the March term of Bourbon Circuit Court. The case was worked up by Officers Hill and Elgin. Marks was arrested in Covington Friday night by Detective Gaffney, of that city, and was brought here Saturday morning by officer Elgin, who went after him. Ward was arrested by Officer Hill. A telescope value full of the stolen clothes was found in the possession of Marks, and through a confession obtained from him another one was found in the stable of Mr. W. W. Masse, where it had been left for Ward. At the examining trial Marks pleaded guilty and was held in $200 bond. Ward was represented by T. E. Ashbrook, who entered a plea of not guilty for his client, and he was held in the sum of $150.

An unfortunate circumstance connected with the affair was the arrest of young "Son" Roche of this city, charged with being connected with it. Roche, like all boys of his age, yearned to get away from home and make his living in a big city. He induced his mother to allow him to make the effort, and she packed his trunk and wished him God speed. He confided to Marks that he was going to Cincinnati, and Marks told him he was going and they would go together, promising him also that he would stay with him in Covington until he secured a situation. They went to Covington together and were together when arrested. Marks, in his confession, entirely exonerated Roche, saying he had no knowledge of the affair whatever. Upon motion of the County Attorney the warrant against him was dismissed.

Old Papers.

The following old and very interesting papers are on file in the office of the Bourbon Circuit Court. On account of their extreme age they are rapidly falling to pieces, but are still plainly decipherable. Circuit Clerk Butler kindly allowed a News reporter to examine them.

"For value received I promise to pay to Mr. Hugh McClinton or order, fifteen pounds, current money of Virginia, on or before the first day of April Next. As witness my hand and Seal at Limestone this 3d day of February, 1786.

"EKENZER S. PLATT. (SEAL)

Railroad Valuation in the County

The following is the report of the State Board of Assessment and Valuation of the railroad property in Bourbon County:

Main line 16.59 miles, at $15,000 per mile.....$248,850

Valuation of other property.....5,000

Total.....$253,850

Paris & Maysville, 9.80 miles, at $9,000 per mile.....$88,200

Valuation of other property.....800

Total.....$89,000

Paris & Lexington, 8.82 miles, at $11,000 per mile.....$97,020

Valuation of other property.....500

Total.....$97,520

Total Assessed Valuation.....$445,370

During the administration of Gov. Bradley the State Board of Assessment and Valuation, which is composed of the State Auditor, the Secretary of State and State Treasurer, refused to make any report as to the assessed valuation of railroad property in the State.

Recently there was a meeting of the different County Attorneys of the State, among whom was County Attorney Darden, of this city, who in and regard the matter with the State Board of Assessment. The railroads were also well represented by counsel. The result of the conference was the above report filed with County Clerk Patton yesterday.

Telephone Points.

The Cumberland Telephone Company last week moved into their new exchange over Davis Thomson & Leggett's store, and Paris now has one of the prettiest and most complete exchanges in the State. The task of putting in an entire new plant was accomplished with but very little inconvenience to subscribers. In a few days the entire city will be supplied with the new Bell instruments. Mr. Masters, the manager asks the News to request those who wish to talk to persons out of the city to please call for the long distance phone. By doing so great deal of unnecessary delay will be avoided. Also, if subscribers would kindly ring off when they are through talking it would enable the central office to be more prompt in giving quick service. If your telephone goes out of order or refuses to work, instead of complaining to the operator call for number 300 and tell your trouble to him. He will respond at once and remedy the matter.

Another thing which a great many thoughtless persons are in the habit of doing, and which is a source of great annoyance to the central office is that of attempting to hold a conversation over the wire with the operators. It not only prevents them from attending to their duties, but makes them violate one of the strictest rules of the telephone service.

A long distance booth with slot machine attachment is now located at the Windsor Hotel, and in a few days it will be placed in the Hotel Fordum.

Regular subscribers can use either of these booths and have the message charged to their accounts. Others can use the slot machine, but are requested to read the directions carefully.

Will Be A Candidate for Re-election.

So many persons have requested of Mayor Perry within the past month that he resign as a candidate for re-election to the office of Mayor that he has requested THE NEWS to state that at the proper time he will announce himself for the office. Paris never had a better Mayor than Ben Perry; faithful and attentive to the duties of the office, Paris has made greater strides forward under his administration than ever before.

A report was circulated recently that Clara Morris was dead, and it gained considerable ground before Miss Morris was able to contradict it.

Booth Tarkington, the novelist and dramatist, acted the name part in "David Garrick" in an amateur performance in Indianapolis recently.

Maejyn Arbuckle is to play the leading role in "Under Two Flags," in which Blanche Bates will star. Francis Carlyle will be in the company.

At the classical Court theater in Weimar, Germany, no actor is now permitted to answer a curtain call. The manager announces to the public that such appearances before the footlights are "inartistic and obsolete, foolish and in bad taste."

ODD ENGAGEMENT RINGS.

Some lovers choose queer tokens of truth to give their fiancées, and the tendency nowadays is toward rings of an unusual design.

An Egyptian ring which was taken from the hand of a mummy is worn by one woman whose tastes run to the bizarre and antique.

Another ring was a section cut from the barrel of a pistol which was a family heirloom and had figured in more than one affair of honor.

A black pearl surrounded by tiny white pearls was given to another woman who scorned superstition. Pearls mean tears in the lore of gems.

Opals, which used to be considered unlucky for engagement rings, are now coming into favor. One superstition defying lover had 13 of these milk and fire gems set into a ring for his fiancée.

Another beautiful and unique engagement ring is a large pearl surrounded by diamonds. When the bride to be saw this, her superstitions vanished forthwith, and it is her boast that she has never wept since it was first put on her finger.

One young man recently had a ring made out of a horseshoe for the girl of his choice. He had long owned the horseshoe and, believing it had brought him good luck, thought a bit of the iron made into a ring would be a happy omen for the engagement.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The waters of the province of Ontario, Canada, are to be extensively restocked with fish in the spring.

The Baltimore American claims to be the only daily newspaper "which has seen the light of three centuries." The first issue of the paper was in 1773.

The Chinese never wear wool, not even in the depth of winter, and generally speaking the entire population clothe themselves in cotton all the year round.

The national park of 1,297 square miles proposed at the headwaters of the Mississippi will, if it is established, be the first in the central region of the country.

A half length portrait of the late Admiral John A. Winslow, who commanded the old sloop of war Kearsarge when she sank the Alabama, is to be presented to the new battleship Kearsarge. The giver has asked that his name be withheld.

DREMITIES

PERSONALITIES.

Lewis Neilson has been made secretary of the Pennsylvania railroad, taking the place of the late J. C. Sims. Mr. Neilson was formerly assistant secretary.

Emperor William has officially confirmed the honorary doctorate recently conferred upon United States Ambassador White by the Berlin Academy of Science.

W. P. Fishback, the noted lawyer who died at his Indianapolis home recently, was an intimate friend of Lord Coleridge, the late chief justice of England, and was frequently his guest.

Friends and classmates of Hamilton Fish, Jr., the first rough rider killed at Las Guadaluas, Cuba, have decided to have a bronze bas-relief erected to his memory at Columbia university, New York.

Henry A. de Lille, who died in poverty in London recently, was prominent as a journalist in Paris during the reign of Napoleon III of France. He was once one of Louis Napoleon's confidential secretaries.

Major General Sir Henry Colville, who recently commanded the Ninth division of the South Africa field force and later was in command of an infantry brigade at Gibraltar, has been placed on the retired list, with pay.

The oddities of life were added to a bit a few days ago when Hon. Charles S. Francis, a Trojan, sailed for Athens, where he goes as the United States minister to Greece. And his daughter who accompanies him is Helen of Troy.

How Yow, the Chinese consul general at San Francisco, has gone into business as a breeder of trotting horses. He has bought a farm for the purpose near San Jose and, except for an American overseer, will employ only Chinese.

Edward VII's queen has decided, it is said, to accept the $5,000 offered the soldiers' and sailors' family fund by William Waldorf Astor, although her enmity to the giver since the Captain Sir Berkeley Milne affair has not lessened.

Richard Yates, the new governor of Illinois, is the first native of the state ever elected to his office. He was inaugurated Jan. 14, which was the exact date of the inauguration of his father, Richard Yates, as governor of the same state 40 years ago.

William J. Bryan's great-grandmother, who is still alive at the age of 98 at New London, Ind., is Mrs. Mary Cano Cobb, the descendant of Francis Ganax, a Huguenot refugee of 1686.

Rev. John Gano, one of the Revolution's "fighting clergymen," was her grandfather.

John D. Rockefeller goes through the same routine every day at noon in regard to his lunch. He enters the little restaurant absently, wakes with a start when the waiter approaches him, hesitates over his order and then always calls for a ham sandwich and a glass of milk.

APHORISMS.

No sword bites so fiercely as an evil tongue.

Self respect is the cornerstone of all virtue.—Sir John Herschel.

The greatest of all faults is to be conscious of none.—Carlyle.

'Better a little chiding than a great deal of heartbreak.—Shakespeare.

The more we study the more we discover our ignorance.—Shelley.

Repentance is the golden key that opens the palace of eternity.—Milton.

Fire and sword are but slow engines of destruction in comparison with the babbling.—Steele.

The only way to make the mass of mankind see the beauty of justice is by showing them, in pretty plain terms, the consequence of injustice.—Sidney Smith.

GOSSIPING OFFICIALS.

"Attorney General Griggs," says the Washington Post, "is the only member of the cabinet thus far to succumb to the golf disease, and he plays at the Washington club under the name of 'William Patterson.' Director of the Mint Roberts has a bagful of clubs which he has selected with care and handles with great dexterity, while Chief Wilkie of the secret service is another excellent player. Judge Willis Van Devanter, the assistant attorney general for the interior department, belongs to the Columbia club and is frequently on the links. He is an all around sportsman and can handle a rifle with unerring skill.

"Even Dennis Flynn, the delegate from Oklahoma, likes the game immensely. 'Out in our country,' he says, 'we have so much room that the links stretch all over creation. They are bounded only by the north and south poles and the rising and the setting of the sun.'"

The Study of Necks.

Palimetry being frowned on by the law, we must turn characters in another way. Why not study necks? Thus the most stupid animals and birds, such as the giraffe, the ostrich, the swan and the goose, have the longest necks, whereas the most docile of brutes—the elephant, for example—possess the shortest. Those again which are the most powerful have the thickest necks. The most feeble generally possess the slenderest. "A fine, strong and powerfully outlined neck is that of Lord Roberts." It tells of dignity, self reliance, firmness and resolution. This is the neck of a man who will see a job right through to the bitter end, who could never cringe or crawl and whose motives are of the most unimpeachable kind. No man devoid of the high moral and mental qualifications of 'Robb' ever possessed so upright and well developed a neck. No one dare take him by the throat with impunity.—Sandow's Magazine.

What Galveston Lost.

A complete study of the losses caused by the storm at Galveston shows that the damage amounted to about $17,000,000. The largest losses were in residences and in household effects. These are placed at something more than $8,400,000. The next heaviest loss was in the property of the United States government, the damage to which is estimated at $3,155,000. The relief contributions in money are said to have aggregated the sum of $1,200,000, and in addition there were received contributions in food, clothing and other supplies valued at $300,000.

English Actors.

An anonymous criticism, supposed to be the well known Clement Scott, has set the dramatic profession in England in a fine rage. The writer of the article declares that there are no great actors at the present day, as Kemble and Keau were great. Irving, he admits, had some talent for farce and melodrama, while to the rest he gives talent for eccentric comedy, but to none the ability for real tragedy.

Queer Name For a Paper.

A new weekly paper in Mexico bears the title of El Chirillon del Diablo—otherwise, The Devil's Own Horse Cart.—Mexican Herald.

Bunker Hill Monument.

Bunker Hill monument is to have an encircling row of electric lights near its top at night if anybody can be induced to pay the cost, estimated at $1,200 a year. The Monument association refuses to pay the bill, and some of its members, while they will not oppose the project, are of the opinion that the garish lights would detract from the impressiveness of the historic pile.

"God Save the King."

The national anthem of Great Britain, "God Save the Queen," will now have to be changed in phraseology to "God Save the King," though the air will not be changed. Both the words and the music date back to the eighteenth century, having been composed in honor of a birthday of George II and first performed in public in 1740.—Indianapolis Journal.

To Cure a Cough.

Stop coughing as it irritates the lungs, and gives them no chance to heal. Foley's Honey and Tar cures without causing a strain in throwing off the phlegm like common cough expectorants. Clark & Kenney.

Forewarned, Forewarned.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system.

It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. B. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had Eczema on my hands and face for five years. It would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the best ointments and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Write for S. S. S. at once. S. S. S. cures that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured Mrs. C. C. of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Boils. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the Boils disappeared.

ODD ENGAGEMENT RINGS.

Some lovers choose queer tokens of love to give their fiancées, and the tendency nowadays is toward rings of an unusual design.

Another iron ring was a section cut from the barrel of a pistol which was a family heirloom and had figured in more than one affair of honor.

A black pearl surrounded by tiny white pearls was given to another woman who scored superstition. Pearls mean tears in the lore of gems.

Opals, which used to be considered unlucky for engagement rings, are now coming into favor. One superstition defying lover had 13 of these milk and fire gems set into a ring for his fiancée.

Another beautiful and unique engagement ring is a large pink pearl surrounded by diamonds. When the bride to be saw this, her superstitions vanished forthwith, and it is her boast that she has never wept since it was first put on her finger.

One young man recently had a ring made out of a horseshoe for the girl of his choice. He had long owned the horseshoe and, believing it had brought him good luck, thought a bit of the iron made into a ring would be a happy omen for the engagement.

APHORISMS.

No sword bites so fiercely as an evil tongue.

Self respect is the cornerstone of all virtue.—Sir John Herschel.

The greatest of all faults is to be conscious of none.—Carlyle.

Better a little chiding than a great deal of heartbreak.—Shakespeare.

The more we study the more we discover our ignorance.—Shelley.

Repentance is the golden key that opens the palace of eternity.—Milton.

Fire and sword are but slow engines of destruction in comparison with the habber-stroke.

The only way to make the mass of mankind see the beauty of justice is by showing them, in pretty plain terms, the consequence of injustice.—Sidney Smith.

Golden Orbits.

"Attorney General Briggs," says the Washington Post, "is the only member of the cabinet thus far to succumb to the golf disease, and he plays at the Washington club under the name of 'William Patterson.' Director of the Mint Roberts has a bagful of clubs which he has selected with care and handles with great dexterity, while Chief Wilkie of the secret service is another excellent player. Judge Willis Van Devanter, the assistant attorney general for the interior department, belongs to the Columbia club and is frequently on the links. He is an all around sportsman and can handle a rifle with unerring skill.

"Even Dennis Flynn, the delegate from Oklahoma, likes the game immensely. 'Out in our country,' he says, 'we have so much room that the links stretch all over creation. They are bounded only by the north and south poles and the rising and the setting of the sun.'

The Study of Necks.

Palimetry being frowned on by the law, we must study characters in another way. Why not study necks? Thus the most stupid animals and birds, such as the giraffe, the ostrich, the swan and the goose, have the longest necks, whereas the most docile of brutes—the elephant, for example—possess the shortest. Those again which are the most powerful have the thickest necks. The most feeble generally possess the slenderest. "A fine, strong and powerfully outlined neck is that of Lord Roberts. It tells of dignity, self reliance, firmness and resolution. This is the neck of a man who will see a job right through to the bitter end, who could never cringe or crawl and whose motives are of the most unimpeachable kind. No man devoid of the high moral and mental qualifications of 'Robt' ever possessed so upright and well developed a neck. No one dare take him by the throat with impunity."—Sandow's Magazine.

What Galveston Lost.

A complete study of the losses caused by the storm at Galveston shows that the damage amounted to about $17,038,275. The largest losses were in residences and in household effects. These were placed at about $1,000,000. The next heaviest loss was in the property of the United States government, the damage to which is estimated at $3,155,000. The relief contributions in money are said to have aggregated the sum of $1,200,000, and in addition there were received contributions in food, clothing and other supplies valued at $300,000.

English Actors.

An anonymous criticism, supposed to be the work of Clement Scott, has set the dramatic profession in England in a fine rage. The writer of the article declares that there are no great actors at the present day, as Kemble and Kean were great. Irving, he admits, had some talent for farce and melodrama, while to the rest he gives talent for eccentric comedy, but to none the ability for real tragedy.

Queer Name For a Paper.

A new weekly paper in Mexico bears the title of El Chirion del Diablo—otherwise, The Devil's One Horse Cart.—Mexican Herald.

Bunker Hill Monument.

Bunker Hill monument is to have an encircling row of electric lights near its top at night if anybody can be induced to pay the cost, estimated at $1,200 a year. The monument association refuses to pay the bill, and some of its members, while they will not oppose the project, are of the opinion that the garish lights would detract from the impressiveness of the historic pile.

"God Save the King."

The national anthem of Great Britain, "God Save the Queen," will now have to be changed in phraseology to "God Save the King," though the air will not be changed. Both the words and the music date back to the eighteenth century, having been composed in honor of a birthday of George II and first performed in public in 1740.—Indianapolis Journal.

ARBUCKLE BROS. Notion Dept. New York City, N. Y.

The low price at which Arbuckles' famous roasted coffee can be sold is made possible by its enormous sale. It should not be classed with the inferior imitations sold at a cent a pound less than Arbuckles'. It has a quality greatly superior to these imitations and makes many more cupsful to the pound. No other firm in the world can buy coffee to so good advantage as the producers of Arbuckles' Coffee. No other coffee is cleaned, roasted or blended with such great care and skill. When you buy Arbuckles' you get better quality and greater value than you can get in any other coffee at anywhere near the same price.

You also get with each package a definite part in some useful article.

Full information with each package. Save the signatures.
